RE: Letter Dated April 30, 2002

Dear Ms. Budnick:

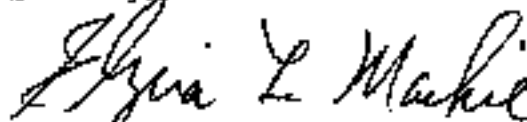

The Cynthia McKinney For Congress campaign receives a large portion of its contributions through the U.S. Postal system. Whenever solicitations for contributions are made, a return envelope is sent to be completed and used for mailing contributions to the campaign. This envelope, when completed, provides us with the information required by the Federal Election Commission (FEC). An envelope has been enclosed for your review.

Frequently, the information asked for is not completed on returning contribution envelopes. If the contributor provides us with a telephone number, our initial request for information is by telephone. Our initial request is always made within 30 days of receipt, with the average first request being made within 5 to 6 days after receipt of contribution. If we are unable to contact the individual or do not obtain all of the necessary information, a written request is sent with a return envelope (copy enclosed). This letter is normally our second and third request for information.

Unfortunately, some contributors do not respond to our requests in a timely manner, and some do not respond at all. During 2001, this campaign attracted new contributors who have chosen, for whatever reason, not to respond to our repeated requests for information on their occupations and employers. We have made third, and sometimes fourth, attempts to get information, but to no avail.

Any additional assistance you can provide in reference to getting information would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Elyria L. Mackie, Treasurer
Cynthia McKinney For Congress
